This luxurious, ocean-front villa is one of Puerto Vallarta's most spectacular examples of contemporary "new palapa" architecture, with white marble floors and lavish decor with a blend of Mexican traditional and modern furnishings. Nestled majestically amidst cliffside boulders in a sheltered cove near Mismaloya Beach, the focal point of the villa is the spacious living room offering panoramic views of Los Arcos and Banderas Bay.

The peak of the soaring, palm thatched palapa is 35ft. above the living room and adjacent open dining area. This beautiful villa will accommodate up to eight guests in four lavish master suites with king beds and private terraces. Each suite has an oversized marble bathroom with raised Jacuzzi. There is also one master suite with a queen size bed. Amenities also include a 45 foot heated infinity pool and jacuzzi, satellite TV, stereo, fax, phone, gym equipment, full-time staff, and air-conditioning throughout. For the owner's peace of mind, children under 12 are not admissible and smoking in the villa is prohibited.
