Casa Dos Cisnes is a luxury Mexican colonial-style home located high in the hills of the exclusive Conchas Chinas area. Built on four levels around a central courtyard, the villa has approximately 10,000 sq. ft. of living area with spectacular views overlooking the Bay of Banderas. The dramatic winding staircase, hacienda-style iron chandeliers, multiple fountains and weeping walls, brick bovedas, fully-equipped gym, and large media/entertainment room. The villa is comprised of 5 bedrooms and two, half bathrooms.

Upstairs, the master suite surrounds one in Colonial period art with a private sun-bathing terrace, Jacuzzi bath with stunning views of the Bay, and a private retreat room off of the bedroom with flat-screen satellite US television programming. All rooms in the master suite have independent music controls from the Bose Lifestyle system in the Retreat room. On the level below the living area, a Media/Entertainment room, with 52" flat panel TV, off of the central courtyard fountain and weeping wall accommodates a large crowd for game playing or television/movie viewing with US programming satellite television from the Bose lifestyle DVD/music system.
